Who we are:

The International Master in Biomedical Sciences (IMBS) team invites you to the Symposium "Science, Ethics and Society". IMBS is a joint Program and collaboration between the Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg and the Universidad de Buenos Aires. We annually welcome students from all parts of the world.

The 5 day Bioethics Module of the IMBS Program concludes with the Symposium "Science, Ethics and Society", which is open to the general public. Speakers from the Albert-Ludwig-University Freiburg, University of Buenos Aires, World Health Organization Geneva, FLACSO Buenos Aires, and the National Centre of Tumor Diseases (NCT) Heidelberg will address topics related to Human Health, Environmental Aspects, Science, Technology, and Research.
